

AWARD LETTER COMPARISON WORKSHEET

Use this worksheet to help you compare award letters from several schools.

TIPS

After completing the FAFSA and being accepted, you will receive an AWARD LETTER that outlines how much the school will cost and what kind of financial aid package you will receive.

Schools format award letters differently, but they contain the same overall information:

- Cost of Attendance, which includes tuition and fees, room and board, books and supplies, travel and personal expenses.
- Gift Aid, which includes all of the FREE sources of financial aid that the school is offering you and that you're receiving from federal, state and other sources.
- Self-Help Aid, which includes loans and work-study.

Then do the math. "WHAT YOU STILL NEED" is the amount of money you are still responsible for after all aid has been applied. This is typically covered by family assistance, savings, private loans, or considering a less expensive school.

x4 CONSIDER the Big PICTURE
Multiply your results by the number of years you anticipate being in school.

* Federal Work-Study funds are paid directly to the student. They should not be expected prior to semester start, as funds are earned according to hours worked, and are not guaranteed.

PA Secretary of Education

Created in 1963 by the Pennsylvania General Assembly, the Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency (PHEAA) has evolved into one of the nation's leading student aid organizations. Today, PHEAA is a national provider of student financial aid services, serving millions of students and thousands of schools through its loan guaranty, loan servicing, financial aid processing, outreach, and other student aid programs.

PHEAA's earnings are used to support its public service mission and to pay its operating costs, including administration of the Pennsylvania State Grant and other state-funded student aid programs. PHEAA continues to devote its energy, resources and imagination to developing innovative ways to ease the financial burden of higher education for students, families, schools, and taxpayers.

PHEAA conducts its student loan servicing activities nationally as American Education Services (AES) and FedLoan Servicing.
